

ORGANIC WINE FROM AUSTRIA

biokult

Biokult Grüner Veltliner

"This is all about fruit—fresh crisp citrus, lively acidity, just cushioned by a creamy, ripe texture.

The flavors are vivid, clean, light and ready to drink now." - Wine Enthusiast

"Aromas of lemon, lime and white pepper with a very crisp, dry-yet-fruity light-to-medium body and a long, tart nectarine skin and grassy earth finish. Great acidity and slightly reminiscent of a Sauvignon Blanc." - Tastings.com

Enjoy with: Mediterranean cuisine, oysters, fresh grilled fish, seafood, salads and pasta dishes.

Alcohol: 11.5% by volume

Appellation: Niederösterreich - Qualitätswein

100% Grüner Veltliner

About the varietal :

Grüner Veltliner is the “queen” of the white varieties in Austria. Its main characteristics are the fruity-spicy nose, also called “Pfefferl” referring to pepper, a note that reminds of ground pepper.
