

Domaine des Cedres Cotes du Rhone

Why it's important:

A more complex CDR than most,
with the ability to age
Everyone loves Cotes du Rhone – this one is better for you

- Most Cotes du Rhones are negociant wines – this is a single grower-producer wine from a 42-acre family-run property in the Rhone Valley
- Certified organic since 1973
- Using biodynamic methods since 2003
- A universally-pleasing, food friendly wine
- Grapes are fertilized and protected from pests naturally – no synthetics
- Strict organic standards produce healthier soil and better tasting wines
